HISTORIC DOWNTOWN PENSACOLA TOUR

Enjoy a 50 minute narrated tour of the historic area of Downtown Pensacola, the “City of Five Flags”. You will hear about America’s first settlement of 1559 followed by permanent colonization in 1698. The tour will take you by the 1912 L&N railroad depot, Saint Michael’s Cemetery of the late 1700’s and the 1832 Christ Church which was used by Union soldiers during the Civil War as a barracks and hospital. In the Historic Village, you will ride by several museums, the Julee cottage that was built around 1798 and Fort George. The tour will stop at the Veteran’s Memorial Park and Wall South. Some reunions have Beach Bum Trolley setup a memorial service with the active duty NAS Color Guard. The tour will stop at McGuire’s Irish Pub for lunch.
