NATIONAL NAVAL AVIATION MUSEUM TOUR

It's off to the National Naval Aviation Museum, the largest museum of air and space memorabilia outside of the Smithsonian. At the Museum you will dine at the Cubi Bar Café with it's display of many Squadron plaques brought over from the U.S. Naval Base in the Philippines. During the day you will be given a guided tour and also view a Giant Screen Theater film. For a more in depth exploration of Naval Aviation, a tour of Hangar Bay One and the virtual flight deck will be on the agenda too! During the air show season, the Blue Angels practice on most Tuesdays and Wednesdays. Be sure and bring your photo ID which will be required to enter Naval Air Station Pensacola.
